A complete range for all your needs

We have the widest product range in UK foodservice, covering all categories including produce, meat and poultry, fish and seafood, grocery, dairy, bakery, desserts, alcohol, catering supplies and equipment. We also offer ready meals that can be prepared to eat onsite, or taken home. Below are some specific suggestions for products you may find useful in the current situation:

BREAKFAST

Everything you need for the most important meal of the day, including tea and coffee, whatever your kitchen facilities and skill levels.

MAIN MEALS

All the ingredients, centre-of-plate items, desserts and accompaniments you need to serve a full menu. If you're short-staffed, our prepared produce range saves time, labour and waste, and requires lower skill levels than prepping whole items.

Sandwiches and other items from our extensive food-to-go and deli ranges make it easy to provide nutritious, appealing light meals and snacks throughout the day, with the flexibility you need to deal with changing schedules and numbers.

SPECIAL DIETARY REQUIREMENTS

People with underlying medical conditions such as diabetes are particularly vulnerable to C-19 infection. Our range includes products to help you meet the full spectrum of specific dietary needs.

DRINKS & SNACKS

Our range of drinks and snacks covers every part of the day and includes hot and cold drinks for counter and self-service, as well as vending machines.
