| | | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• You should continue to request red vouchers from your usual referrer, by phone or by email.• Your referrer will issue appropriate vouchers as usual.• Referrers will then photograph the vouchers and send them by email direct to MaD Foodbank, copied to you if you wish.• You can also email photographs of any vouchers you already have. Make sure the photograph shows the whole of the voucher.• The email address is vouchers@malmesburydistrict.foodbank.org.uk.• You do not need to send vouchers on days on which the Foodbank is normally open – They will be working every day from Monday to Friday.• Volunteers will deliver food parcels direct to clients' homes in response to the red vouchers we receive. You do not need to come to the Foodbank.• Vouchers received before 12 noon will normally be delivered that afternoon; vouchers received after 12 noon will normally be delivered the following afternoon (excluding weekends).• Deliveries will normally happen between 2pm and 4pm; clients are expected to be at home to receive deliveries.• Bags will be left on the doorstep and the bell rung to notify you that it's there but no physical contact with you will be made by the drivers.• If there is no-one at home, food will be left on the doorstep – that is your risk. Food which goes missing after delivery will not be replaced.• Please do not call us to ask when your delivery will be coming – this will only delay deliveries for everyone. Only call if you have been waiting more than 2 working days for your food. The number is 01666 826982. | |
