

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- 1 You must ask someone if they are willing and able to be your proxy and vote on your behalf. Please note that a person can only be the proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at the same election or referendum*.
- 2 Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you need to vote by proxy and may need a qualified person to sign your application. See notes below for information on who can support your application.
- 3 Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature.
- 4 Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

Only electors who are (or will be) registered individually are entitled to vote by proxy. In addition, the person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are (or will be) registered individually. Contact your electoral registration office for further information.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission. Please note: this form can only be used after 5pm on the sixth working day before an election or referendum and must arrive at your electoral registration office before 5pm on the day of the poll.

* By referendum we mean: Neighbourhood Planning Referendums, Council Tax Referendums, Mayoral & Governance Arrangements Referendums, and Local Authority Advisory polls. If you wish to apply to vote by post for a different type of referendum, please contact your Electoral Registration Officer.

Voting by proxy

If you have had a medical emergency that took place after 5pm on the sixth working day before an election or referendum which means that you cannot vote in person at your polling station, you can apply to vote by emergency proxy (someone else voting on your behalf). You can apply up until 5pm on polling day.

This form should not be used if you have been detained in a hospital under Section 145 of the Mental Health Act 1983 in England and Wales or Section 329 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 in Scotland.

Does my application need supporting?

If you are registered blind by a local authority and your application is based on your blindness, or you are in receipt of a benefit payment (listed below) because of the disability specified in the application, then you do not need to have your application supported. You must complete Part 4B or 4C of the application.

Benefit payments:

- A higher rate of the mobility component of a disability living allowance
- The enhanced rate of the mobility component of the personal independence payment
- An Armed Forces independence payment

Who can support my application?

If they are giving care or treating you for the disability that prevents you from voting in person (the disability does not have to be permanent):

- a registered medical practitioner, including a dentist, optician, pharmacist, osteopath, chiropractor and psychologist
- a registered nurse
- a registered health professional

If they are giving care, treating you, or have arranged care or assistance in respect of the disability:

- a registered social worker

Alternatively:

- a registered mental health manager or their representative
- if you live in a residential care home, the person registered as running that home
- if you live on premises provided for people of pensionable age or disabled persons, the warden of those premises

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party, or outcome.
- Your local election office will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.
- You will need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your Electoral Registration Officer

Voting as proxy

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

The person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are 18 or over and they are (or will be) registered individually.

More information

If you have any questions about voting by proxy, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk or contact your electoral registration office.

In England and Wales, the electoral registration office is based at your local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office. For contact details, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk

This form does not apply in Northern Ireland. Visit www.eoni.org.uk for more information.

Electoral Registration Officers will only use the information you provide for electoral purposes. They will look after personal information securely and will follow the Data Protection Act 1998. Electoral Registration Officers will not give personal information about you to anyone else or another organisation unless they have to by law.
